

Bharat Ratna Sir M.Visvesvaraih Sugarcane Research Institute, Mandya in association with S.Nijalingappa Sugar Institute, Belagavi has organized an international seminar on Improving sustainability of the milling process in Mysuru. As a part of MoU with Queensland University of Technology, Brisbane, Australia the institute has conducted the seminar for the benefit of southern part of sugar factories. Dr.G.Kent an expert in milling areas from Sugar Research Institute & QUT, Brisbane has delivered lectures on Improving sustainability of milling process, Understanding milling tandem control n Comparative analysis of Karnataka sugar factories with Australian mills. Sugar factories technicians and B.Sc (Sugar Science & Technology) students from S. .Nijalingappa Sugar Institute, Belagavi have interacted and obtained the benefits from the event.